

GIN

Yeti Front Container

Pilot Manual

v1.0, 05/2014

Options

Rescue Soft Shackle

- Dyneema line
- lightweight
- Weight: 7g

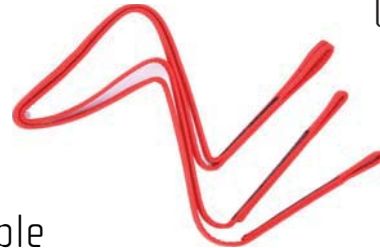

or

Yeti rescue carabiner
(35g)

Yeti Y bridle

- shoulder attachment
- for Yeti & Yeti Convertible
- Weight: 42g

Yeti Xtrem bridle

- main caribiner attachment
- Velcro backing
- Weight: 76g

Lite Yeti rescue Y bridle

- Dyneema shoulder attachment
- 2 sizes: 80cm, 125cm
- Weight: 40g

Included

Bridle to rescue attachment

Bridle attachment

Pass the Y bridle through the rescue attachment

Pass the ends of the Y bridle through the base

Pull to make a clean knot

Rescue handle attachment

Handle attachment

Pass the handle through the center loop

Pass the handle through itself

Pull to make a clean knot

1. Packing- shoulder attachment bridle

1

2

3

4

Attach the red strap
using the velcro

Insert the black webbing into buckle on red strap

Place the rescue &
arrange the bridle

5

6

7

8

Fold the rescue over the bridle (center)

Pass string through the eyelets

Pass the string through the base flap

Pass the string through
the top flap & pull tight

Pass the plastic wire through the cloth eyelets

Remove string & pass the plastic wire into pockets

Put the edges of the handle into the covers

Tighten the elastic bands & tuck behind the rescue

2. Packing- main carabiner attachment bridle

1 Make a knot with rescue bridle

2 Velcro on bridle.

3 Insert the black webbing into the buckle on the blue and red bridle.

4 Arrange the bridle like the grey arrow.

5 Put the rescue on the bridle.

6 Join the rescue handle to rescue.

Use string to fasten the flaps

Insert the yellow wire into the pockets

Put the edges of the handle into the cover

Pull the draw strings tight to secure the rescue

Tuck the draw strings behind the container

Attach the Y bridle to the main carabiners

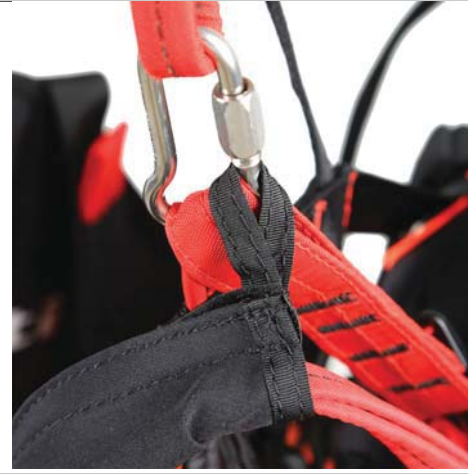

Bridle to harness

Attach the red strap or front bridle to the main carabiner

Pass the chest strap through the adjustable loops in the rear

For the Yeti and Yeti Convertible, attach the Y bridle tunnel to the main

Shoulder attachment

Pass the Y bridle up through the bridle tunnel

Attach the bridle to the Soft Shackle & shoulder
attachment points

Cover the Soft Schackle
with the neoprene cover

Soft Shackle

1 Pass the Soft Shackle line through the connections 2 times

2 Pass the loop end of the line through the velcro base

3 Pass the velcro base through the loop end

4 Pull tight on the velcro base to make a clean knot

5 Wrap the velcro around one side of the line

6 Cover the Soft Shackle attachment using the Maillon rapide cover